

FIORE C. LONDINO

Lominger International Associate Fiore Londino is a founder and Partner of Pareto Consulting, LLC. He is an organization development consultant with more than 20 years of experience.

Fiore's operational and executive management experience - including global management - combined with three years of consulting in a wide variety of industries enable him to partner with clients to develop practical solutions that achieve desired business results.

His firm, Pareto Consulting, LLC, guides organizations in building better talent and improving the productivity of their workforce. Fiore focuses on enabling people to perform in order to achieve business objectives using Pareto's Principle, the 80/20 rule.

Fiore has extensive experience and expertise in the field of Human Resources. As Vice President of Strategy and Core HR Processes, he led global talent management functions and global recruitment strategy and implementation. He also has extensive international work experience in England, Ireland, France, Germany, Italy, Scandinavia, Mexico, Canada, India, and the Pacific Rim.

He consults with operational and functional groups in the areas of leadership, executive coaching, selection, performance management, team development, and organizational development.

His clients are primarily medium-sized organizations in high tech, manufacturing, education (K-12 & higher education), financial services, social sector, health care, and government.

Fiore has delivered a variety of workshops in the content areas of performance management, selection, coaching and feedback, diversity, leadership development, and organizational change.

He is a presenter at conferences speaking about his work in the areas of selection, leadership development, and organizational development.

Fiore is certified in the LEADERSHIP ARCHITECT® Suite of products and Compression Planning. He is also an accredited as Instructor for several other companies that market organizational change products.

You can reach Fiore via the Lominger International website at www.lominger.com or at:

Pareto Consulting, LLC
4033 Rosemonte Drive
Allison Park, PA 15101
+1 724.452.8020
+1 412-841-3678 (mobile)
flondino@pareto-consulting.com